Our 649th meeting

September 13, 2013

President's Message

Dear GCC Members & Friends,

I hope everyone had lots of fun at our last meeting with the Pizza Party (PS: I still am awed by the size of that pizza!) and the White Elephant Auction. It was great to see so many people attend and participate. Many cool lots were donated to the Club for our White Elephant sale and $456.25 raised for the Club. WOW! Thanks again to all of the donors and to all who bid. Our monthly raffle was also very successful with strong ticket sales. We have another great raffle planned for this month so I hope you are excited to win some more nice prizes. The NASC Golden State Coin Show was last week and it was great to see so many GCC members in attendance. I'm also proud to announce that through our sales of NASC Gold Drawing tickets, of which the Club was permitted to retain a portion, the Club raised almost $200. Additionally, of the 35 gold coins that were raffled off in the drawing, five of the coins were won by

Augusts' Program

"Grading Indian Head Cents"

Video by Rick Snow

Rick Snow of Eagle Eye Rare Coins is one of the most well-known Indian Head Cent specialists in the hobby today. He has written several books on Flying Eagle and Indian Head Cents and is the chief expert when it comes to Indian Head Cent varieties. Rick has also published a free guide to Grading Indian Head Cents to be distributed to all those attending our meeting. Additionally, Rick has produced short videos on how to grade Indian Head Cents that go along with his guide and we will be showing one of those videos at the meeting.

*Everyone should be an expert at grading
Indian Head Cents after this meeting!*
