Our 661st Meeting

March 14, 2014

Message From Our President...

As you may already know, March is our club's anniversary month. The Glendale Coin Club was founded in March 1959 making our club 55 years old! For those who have not seen it already, we have a newspaper clipping about our club from 1959 as well as other club history available on our website at:

<http://www.glencoin.com/history.htm>

Thank you to all who purchased our 55th anniversary medals which are currently in production. We are hopeful that they will be delivered by our meeting on March 14, but if they are not we will certainly have them in April.

Also, a reminder that 2014 member dues are due by the March 14 meeting. The membership dues help fund prizes and refreshments at our meetings so it is important that all members are current with dues. Also, your dues must be paid before receiving your copper 55th Anniversary Medal.

Finally, the raffle this month has over $300 worth of prizes including lots of large silver coins from around the World and another GOLD top prize! Come out to the meeting and join us for a great anniversary meeting with our educational program, show & tell and auction.

See you all at the meeting,
Mike

March's Program...

Top Scams To Be Aware Of When Buying Coins Online

There are many places on the Internet to buy many great coins. There are major auction houses, dealer websites, online message boards and of course eBay. In many of these online transactions you are required to send money to a complete stranger you have never dealt with and to trust that they will send you what you ordered as advertised. While the majority of online sellers are honest (otherwise they would not in business for long), there are enough bad guys out there for you to exercise some caution when shopping online. Jarett Casesa will be presenting on some of the most common online coin scams that have been going around lately and will provide several tips of what to look for when you are buying coins over the Internet.

National Coin Week...

The 91st annual National Coin Week is being celebrated April 20-26, 2014 with the theme "Coin & Country: Celebrating Civic Service." The theme honors the 50th anniversary of the Kennedy Half Dollar, President John F. Kennedy's famous call to service to "ask not what your country can do for you, ask what you can do for your country" and the role of money in celebrating civic pride and engagement. The ANA is holding a member volunteer challenge where members are encouraged to volunteer in their communities and document their experiences for prizes. See the ANA's website at www.money.org for more details if you wish to participate.

2015 Red Books...

The 2015 Guide Book of United States Coins ("Red Books") will be available in April. The Glendale Coin Club has pre-ordered a case of new Red Books at a discounted price. If you would like a new 2015 Red Book, we will have them in both Spiral bound and Hardcover editions for only $10 each! We may have them in hand by our April meeting; if not, we will have them by May. For reference, the suggested retail prices of the Spiral Bound and Hardcover 2015 Red Books are $14.95 and $16.95, respectively.

Reserve your copy or copies at the March meeting as we can only offer them while our supplies last!
