Our 627th meeting

October 14, 2011

President's Message

Dear GCC Members & Friends,

What a great meeting we had. Our annual White Elephant Sales was a huge success, and fun was had by all. For the October meeting I invite all of you to bring in some of your old numismatic items to put up for auction. We have had fewer and fewer lots each meeting and I would like to see some more coming in.

Remember we could use your help in locating speakers for our club meetings. If you or someone you know is willing to speak at the GCC please contact me (dberry@pressedsales.com) or Mary (jmy4coins@gmail.com) with the pertinent info (name, topic, e-mail address) so we schedule them to provide the program in the future. We greatly appreciate all the help that our members give to our club.

I hope you all had a wonderful month and I will see you at this upcoming meeting.

October's Program

This month we are pleased to have Phil Iversen as our speaker with a slide presentation about "Lewis & Clark-Sighting the Pacific". Phil is a well known coin club member/ officer of several organizations (CSNA/ NASC among others) as well as being a dealer who sets up at several local coin shows, including the GCC & VHCC shows. He has been honored by many organizations for what he does for the numismatic hobby. Phil will surely provide a great slide presentation in which we will learn something new and interesting.

Be sure to be there to hear Phil.
