Golden State Coin Show

From Your President...

I like to travel and when I do I'm always looking for "used book" stores not to mention coin shops.

The "used book" stores, especially in small towns, will have numismatic material that no one seems interested in. Many good buys can be found in these shops. In Alamosa, CO, I found a 6th Edition copy of Yeoman's "Red Book" for a dollar in nice shape. These are collector's items and currently have a value of $50-$150.

Closer at home I found a "First Edition" that sold for $50 that frequently brings $400-$600, depending on condition, on Ebay. Unfortunately I was "a day late and buck short" as they say.

It's also interesting finding coins in different locations when traveling. I even find interesting stuff in "Thrift Shops". Many coins can be found cheap because of lack of interest. It really pays to check out these coin and book shops when you travel

Sandy

PS Don't forget to bring a friend with you to our meetings.

Golden State Coin Show

Once again I'm going to remind you about the GSCS coming up on August 24 and 25 at the Masonic Center in Duarte. You can use the map on this page to guide you to the address. See you there, and if you're really ambitious, there's a dinner on the 24th at a nearby Holiday Inn. For $26 you can attend by making arrangements with Joyce Kuntz, Banquet Hostess, 697 Scripps Dr., Claremont, CA 91711-2640.

White Elephant

We'll be having our annual White Elephant Auction to support the club's coffers during the August meeting. Please remember to scrounge your closets and bookshelves for something interesting and fun to bring to the auction.

GCC Get-Well's...

We have quite a few people on the mend.

First, Dorsille Fritcher told us all at the July meeting that Bea Young was not feeling well, and as a consequence wasn't able to attend our meeting. We hope you're feeling better by now, Bea, and look forward to seeing you at the August meeting.

Next, we heard that Sandy Mazel's son had been injured in a rock-climbing accident in Colorado. This was the reason Sandy couldn't make it to the July meeting and why we postponed the installation of officers (something we'll catch up on at the August meeting). Maybe Sandy can give us an update we see him in August.

Thanks for the Backup, Earl

Bill Perkins will not be available to pick up the room key for the months of August and September. My understanding is that Earl Fritcher has agreed to play the hero and pick this up so we can continue to enjoy our meeting room. Thanks for the helping hand, Earl.

On July 30, 2002, the 1933 Double Eagle sold for $6.6 million with the fall of the auction hammer. Including the taxes and buyer's fees the total price came to around $7.59 million!
