Our 597 th meeting

March 13, 2009

President's Message

Dear Glendale Coin Club members:

Sorry I wasn't able to be with you in February's meeting. I simply had too much on my mind, and coins were not on the top of my priority list.

Nevertheless, it's March now, and I feel much better. I got a new job, and things are looking brighter this month!

This month we (or some) celebrate St. Patrick's Day – please do bring in a Show-And-Tell that is related, or anything else that you want us all to enjoy.

I have something very special to show you, and although it has nothing to do with St. Patrick's Day, I'm sure you will still enjoy seeing it.

I've also started collecting applications for the pages at the August ANA Convention in Los Angeles. If you have any available youngsters that would like to take this wonderful opportunity – please let me know ASAP (the schedules will be first come – first serve!)

See you Friday!

'THE BANK NOTES OF THE AFTERLIFE':

The Chinese believe when people die, their spirits or ghosts go to an afterlife where they continue to live on. In order to ensure that they have lots of good things in the afterlife, their relatives send them prayers, presents and offerings --and one of the best things, money --HELL BANK NOTES. This side line also includes Hell Bank deposit books and slips as well as Hell Bank credit cards from Visa and MasterCard.

These paper collectibles, aka 'SPIRIT MONEY', have found their own niche with specialty currency collectors. The program will acquaint the audience (via a hands-on tour) of their origin, general history and use in the 'Black Arts'. Hundreds of Hell Bank Notes are available to the collector, with most being relatively inexpensive --under $50 dollars. Some produced and issued in Hong Kong and by shop keepers in Canadian Chinatown's are extremely large in size (almost 8 x10) and high in denomination (an $8Million note for example), ornately detailed and very colorful.

Thank you Walt !!

Make plans for 2009 refreshments.

Let us know if you would like to provide refreshments or "sponsor" them, (pay $20 and have someone else bring them)
