Our 618th meeting

January 14, 2011

President's Message

Dear GCC Members & Friends,

I hope that everyone had a wonderful Hanukkah and Christmas and a fun New Year's Eve. Best wishes to all for a knock-out New Year!

I am sure that everyone will agree that we again had a fantastic Holiday Party. Food, Friendship & Fun that is quite a potent combo. Thanks so much to everyone who brought food & drink to share & to everyone who helped get everything on the table. Nobody has a party like the GCC!!

Please be sure to bring Show & Tell and auction items. I think that Show & Tell is one of the highlights of the meeting.

Please invite friends to the next meeting so they can learn about our wonderful hobby.

See you-- Mary

Note from the Editor

Starting January 2011 the cost of the room will rise from $25 per meeting to $50!

Please help us offset this cost by paying your dues. Due to this increase we found it necessary to raise the cost of dues. If you are a Lifetime member or if you paid in December this change doesn't affect you.

The new rate is $10 for an individual and $15 for a family.

Please mail to the address above or pay at the meeting. Also in January we will have sign-ups for our monthly refreshments. You can either bring them or pay $20 to "sponsor" that month.

Thank you for your help!!

January's Program

Dennis Berry has been collecting Casino Limited Edition Silver Strike Tokens since late 1994.

This short talk will bring all of you into the fun of this hobby which is really not too far away from coin collecting.

Dennis will share the beginnings up to today with the casino tokens growing from small $2.00 tokens all the way up to a new $300.00 one pound .999 fine silver token.

If you have a few of these and would like to share what you have, this would be the right meeting to do just that!!!

Dennis says that he "looks forward to sharing with all of you and also learning from some of your stories".
