Our 669th Meeting

November 14, 2014

Message From Our President...

Thank you to all members who helped with our annual coin show on October 26 at the Van Nuys Masonic Lodge! Thank you as well to all who attended the show and supported our dealers. The show was another great success with terrific public attendance and nearly unanimous positive feedback from our dealers. In addition, our annual gold and silver coin raffle was very successful with record ticket sales and several happy winners. Great job to all of you who helped sell raffle tickets and congrats to all of the prize winners! For more details on our raffle, coin show and a few pictures from the coin show, please see Pages 5-6.

This month, we have another great meeting planned for November 14. Not only do we have another interesting program planned (See Page 2), but the prizes for this month's raffle are even better the great mix of prizes including the just released 2014 Kennedy Half Silver Set as the top prize! Also, remember that our last auction of the year is this month so be sure to bring those items you were looking to sell and also be prepared to buy lots of great coins. Last chance to pick up those gifts for the Holidays!

Please come out Friday evening for what should be a really great meeting.

See you all on Friday,
Mike

of Mexico

This month, our club is fortunate to have Jeff Stahl, current President of the Greater Orange County Coin Club, presenting a program on The State Coppers of Mexico. The program will cover the State and Federal brass and copper coinage of Mexico minted from 1824-1872. We expect that many will learn a great deal and find the program quite interesting.
